

Nelson Zamora is currently a Botanist at TEC, Cartago, Costa Rica. Working on Tropical plant ecology and taxonomy.

Email: zamoravn@gmail.com

17 June 2022
10h15 – 11h00

Salle 44, Bâtiment PS1, CIRAD-UMR AMAP

ZOOM: <https://umontpellier-fr.zoom.us/j/99310850611>

FLORA of COSTA RICA: Botanical exploration, knowledge and conservation presented by

Nelson ZAMORA

TEC, Cartago, Costa Rica

ABSTRACT

This presentation of Nelson Zamora (Botanist at TEC) will introduce the work and knowledge on the flora of Costa Rica, through the points listed below:

- Geographical country location and importance for its high biodiversity
- Botanical exploration history and geographical coverage at national level
- Botanical scientific networks, human capacity, knowledge and herbaria at country level
- History and results of the Manual flora project
- Plants diversity and new discoveries
- Conservation and dissemination of the flora knowledge

KEY WORDS (5 max)

Tropical forest, tree species, species inventories, species identification

Invited and animated by:

Dr. P. Bonnet (UMR AMAP)

Type:

Results & Projects

Oral language:

english

Language of PPT:

english (recommended)

